

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

MELROSE, MASS.Poultry—Keeping of. (Ord. July 9, 1912.)

SECTION 1. No person shall keep any poultry, including hens, geese, or ducks, in the city of Melrose without a permit from the board of health.

SEC. 2. The board of health may make all reasonable and necessary regulations respecting the sanitary condition of any building, yard, or inclosure used for keeping poultry, and no poultry shall be allowed to run at large outside of such building, yard, or inclosure.

SEC. 3. All permits issued by the board of health for the keeping of poultry shall terminate on the 31st day of December of each year, and may be canceled by the board of health at any time for violation of the conditions of the permit.

SEC. 4. The fee for every such permit to keep poultry shall be 25 cents.

SEC. 5. Whoever, after due notice from the board of health, violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $20.

MEMPHIS, TENN.Foodstuffs—Protection of Milk and Bread. (Ord. January, 1912.)

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the board of commissioners of the city of Memphis, that it shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firm, or corporation to sell, offer for sale, or have in his, her, or their possession, charge, or control, for sale or distribution any milk or bread within the corporate limits of the city of Memphis unless protected from contamination as provided herein.

SEC. 2. All milk sold in less than 1-gallon lots shall be put in sterile individual containers properly sealed, in which condition it shall be delivered to the consumer, and all loose or dipped milk, whether sold from dairy, wagon, store, hotel, or restaurant, or any other place, is hereby declared to be unsanitary, and its sale forbidden under penalty herein provided.

SEC. 3. All bread, rolls, or buns intended for sale by the piece shall be protected by a covering of sterile waxed paper or similar material and is to be wrapped under sanitary conditions by healthy and clean individuals. The sale of any unwrapped bread, rolls, or buns, whether by bakery, store, hotel, restaurant, or any other place is hereby declared to be unsanitary and its sale forbidden under penalty herein provided.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained that the violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof the offender shall be fined not less than $2 nor more than $50 for each and every offense.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, that this ordinance take effect from and after its passage, it being a matter of urgency and necessity and the public welfare requiring it.

Meats and Meat Products—Inspection of. (Ord. Feb. 12, 1912).

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the board of commissioners of the city of Memphis, that it shall henceforth be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to sell, offer for sale, or have in his, her, or their possession or control for sale any meat or meat product, unless such meat or meat product bears the tag or stamp indicative of inspection by the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture or "inspected and passed Department of Health, Memphis" stamp or tag.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained that the department of health in the city of Memphis shall arrange for the inspection of all meats and meat products at the city market house and such other points as the necessity of the service may require and that the superintendent of the health department shall appoint trained and competent men to make this inspection.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained that the inspectors appointed hereunder shall be empowered to collect an inspection fee for each animal inspected as follows: For each beef, 10 cents; for each hog, 5 cents; for each sheep, lamb, kid, or goat, 5 cents; for each carload of dressed meat, $2; and under no circumstances shall an inspector stamp or pass any dressed fresh meat (poultry, fish, and game excepted) unless this inspection fee has been paid. All moneys collected under this section shall be paid into the city treasury once a week as other moneys are now paid.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained that the inspectors appointed hereunder shall give bond in the penal sum of $1,000 for the proper discharge of their duties and file said bond with the city clerk.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained that the inspectors appointed hereunder shall have full police power; that they shall be under the direction of the city chemist, to whom they shall report daily.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained that the ordinance take effect from and after its passage, the matter being one of urgency and necessity and the public welfare requiring it.

Screening—Required for all Buildings. (Ord. Mar. 18, 1912.)

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the board of commissioners of the city of Memphis that all property within the city of Memphis shall be screened by April 1 of each year and shall remain screened until November 1 of each year; that the said screening shall be done by all persons, firms, or corporations owning said property within the limit of the city of Memphis; that the same shall be done in a thorough and workmanlike manner, and shall include windows, doors, and all openings.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained by the said board of commissioners of the city of Memphis that the tenants of the property so screened in accordance with this ordinance shall take reasonable and proper care of the screens in the property which they occupy, and shall see that they are put up properly on the 1st of April of each year and taken down with care on November 1 of each year.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained by the board of commissioners of the city of Memphis that a violation of this ordinance shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $5 and not more than $50, and that each day the premises are unscreened during the period herein stated shall constitute a separate offense.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained that this ordinance shall take effect immediately after passage, the matter being one of necessity and urgency and the public welfare requiring it.

MOBILE, ALA.

Bakeries—Construction and Maintenance. (Ord. July 9, 1912.)

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the board of commissioners of the city of Mobile, That any place used for any process of mixing, compounding, or baking for sale, or for purposes of a restaurant, bakery, or a hotel, and bread, biscuits, pretzels, crackers, buns, rolls, macaroni, cakes, pies, or any food product of which flour or meal is the principal ingredient, shall be deemed a bakery: Provided, however, That restaurants in which any of the foregoing food products are mixed and baked for consumption in such restaurants only, or in ordinary restaurants, kitchen stoves, or ranges, and in kitchens or rooms in dwellings where any of said food products are mixed and baked in an ordinary kitchen stove or range shall not be considered bakeries within the provisions of this ordinance.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That every place used as a bakery and everything connected in any way therewith shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition. All vehicles from which bread or other bake-shop products are sold shall be kept in a clean condition, and all baskets or other containers in which any of the said products are conveyed through the streets shall be closely covered in a way to exclude dust, flies, and other sources of contamination. All parts of the bakery shall be adequately